DÄV's CHOCOLATE MUGG-AHH CAKE

I am by no means a chef, culinary expert nor dietician, so freely substitute where necessary to meet your dietary needs! I make no claims to how healthy or unhealthy it is nor can I control your substitutions. So, I have no idea of the calories nor do I want to know, so kindly keep that to yourself!

1/4 cup flour
1/4 cup sugar
2 tbsp cocoa
1/8 tsp Baking Powder
1/8 tsp Baking Soda
1/4 tsp Vanilla extract
2 tbsp water
2 tbsp milk
2 tbsp vegetable oil, or canola oil or whatever

In a big oversized mug, or small bowl, thoroughly mix flour, sugar, cocoa, baking powder and baking soda.

Blend in vanilla, milk, oil and water. Substitute oil or milk or water as long as you have a total of 6 tablespoons of something liquid ... Meh, I dunno!

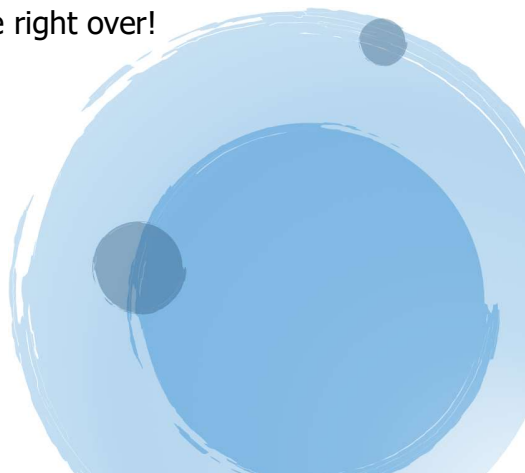

Try adding milk chocolate chips, white chocolate chips or Reeses pieces!

Cook on high in microwave for about 1 minute 45 seconds - time will vary by microwave. For the clueless, please be careful taking it out as it will be hot – duh!

Let it cool, toss it the refrigerator for a bit, then top it with premade icing or homemade, but I always make it too runny or way too much!

MOST IMPORTANT – make 2 and when it's ready call me, I'll be right over!

Warm regards,
Däv
